Golden Community Choirs, a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization, invites you to be a financial supporter of the choir. Your sponsorship will establish you as a major contributor to the culture and quality of life in Golden, Colorado and will keep your name in public view.

The mission of the Golden Community Choirs is to be a musical resource for the Golden Community in order to provide high quality musical performances, which enrich and entertain the community and to provide voice training and choral experience for singers of all levels, adults as well as children.

We are an independent volunteer community choral organization, which is not affiliated with any church or civic organization. The only paid staff positions are those of the directors and accompanists. The choirs are partially self-supported by the members, and financial help from the community enables us to pay for orchestral accompaniment and other expenses.

The Golden Concert Choir, formed in October 2000 with 13 adult members, now has 50-70 singers. The director is David Bell. In September 2006, Confluence, a 16-voice auditioned choir, was formed.

The Concert Choir performs two or three concerts each year. Our repertoire includes classical works, modern pieces and holiday compositions. Past performances have included Mendelssohn's "Elijah", Carl Orff's "Carmina Burana", Handel's "Messiah", Beethoven's "Ninth Symphony", and Verdi's "Requiem". We have collaborated with the Boulder Chorale, the Jefferson Symphony Orchestra, Niwot Timberline Symphony, and the 101st Army Band.

Confluence performs a variety of repertoire supporting special events, and holds several concerts a year.

GCC is requesting donations to support our efforts of providing music education, venue and equipment acquisition (risers, shell, podium) for concerts, and general operating funds for promotional and educational material.

For more information about the Golden Community Choirs, visit our website at <http://www.goldencommunitychoirs.org> or contact our Membership Chair, Judy Denison, at judy_d@prodigy.net or (303) 279-5177.

Thank you for your support!
